

FROM THE CONFEDERATION BRIDGE

DIRT ROAD SHORT CUT (approximately 7 minutes from Bridge)

- 1) Exit the Bridge and drive until you hit the first set of traffic lights. Turn left onto Dickie Road. Drive straight for a short period until the road ends. Turn left onto Route 10.
- 2) Travel on Route 10, driving through the North Carleton and Searletown communities up past the white Church. * A great place to take photos of the Confederation Bridge
- 3) Turn left onto the dirt McQuarrie Road just past the Fulton Hammil Ltd. potato storage building.
- 4) Drive on the dirt McQuarrie Road, and when you arrive footsteps from the beach, turn right onto the Chelton Road.
- 5) The dirt road will then turn to pavement, and you'll travel just a bit until you see the signs for Gordon Cove Cottages on the left hand side. Turn left onto the Gordon Cove Road.
- 6) You will see the Little Bird Cottage sign on the right hand side at #60 Gordon Cove Road. We're the fifth cottage on the right hand side, nestled in the trees.

LONGER HIGHWAY ROUTE (approximately 14 minutes from Bridge)

- 1) Exit the Bridge and drive to the first set of traffic lights. Turn left onto Dickie Road. Drive straight for a short period until the road ends. Turn left onto Route 10. but continue on Route 10 - North Carlton Road past the dirt road. Continue a few moments and turn left onto Route 112 - Searletown Road.
- 2) Drive straight on the Searletown Road, and then turn left again onto the Fernwood Road.
- 3) Continue straight on the Fernwood Road until you turn onto the Chelton Road. Stay on the Chelton Road, eventually turning left as the road turns giving you a view of the Confederation Bridge. If you drive straight onto a dirt road, you've gone too far on the Chelton Road.
- 4) After turning left onto the Chelton Road, continue straight as you pass the Chelton Provincial Park and Beach. Keep driving for a few moments until you see the Gordon Cove Cottages sign on the right.
- 5) Turn right onto the Gordon Cove Road. You will see the Little Bird Cottage sign on the right hand side at #60 Gordon Cove Road. We're the fifth cottage on the right hand side, nestled in the trees.
